

SPANISH AND GLOBAL ECONOMIES

Basic details

- Fall semester.
- Number of teaching hours per week: 4.
- Credits: 6
- Teaching language: English.
- Lecturer: Motis Dolader, Miguel Ángel (mamotis@usj.es)

Seminar description

World economy: World economy fundamentals. The economy as a science. Analytical instruments of the Spanish and World Economy. The economic systems. International trade. Economic integration. Global economic problems. Spanish Economy: Spanish economy fundamentals. The Spanish economy in the 20th and 21st century. Economic structure of Spain. The labour market. Income distribution.

Learning outcomes

After completing this subject, students will be able to:

- Understand the main economic issues related to the foreign sector, as well as major organisms in the international economy
- Analyse the main economic variables
- Know about the characteristics of the productive sectors in Spain
- Analyse, at a basic level, the factors associated with economic growth
- Understand the main economic phases that the Spanish and world economy since the have experienced since late nineteenth century to the present day